	NEW ENGLAND YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS

The Records of Providence Monthly Meeting of Women Friends commencing at the time of a separation on account of unsound Doctrine being introduced into Society

At Providence Monthly Meeting of women friends ~~held~~ in held in Providence 27th of 11 mo 1844 Whereas some of the members of this meeting having assisted in effecting a separation in Swansea Monethly and setting up a spurious one there contrary to discipline and have attended the same and identified themselves with them and as the person who has acted for some time ^{acted} as clerk to this meeting has acted in accordance with the views and measures of the aforesaid members and rejected the committee of the quarterly meeting appointed to visit subordinate meetings by refusing to notice and read a minute of their appointment presented to this meeting by said committee and has entertained a complacent which was minuted in the preparative meeting and thus prepared against a member of this meeting under their influence and instruction for being out of unity with those friends aforesaid and attending the the meetings of friends held according to discipline and good order therefore it is concluded to appoint Sarah S Kenyon to serve the meeting as clerk that friends may proceed to transact the affairs of society according to discipline and act as a subordinate branch of Rhode Island Quarterly meeting

The preparative account being present the representatives therein named are Lephah Chase and Alice Chase who are present. The friends who were named at our last monthly meeting to attend the marriage of John Harrison Gove and Martha J. Kington report that it was satisfactorily conducted.

The committee appointed to visit Elizabeth Keeler on account of a complaint brought against her by the members at our last monthly meeting have had an opportunity with her, in which she expressed herself a satisfaction in the work she was pursuing, and it is the judgment of this meeting that no benefit will result either to the individual or to society by continuing her a member any longer and she is therefore denied her right of membership with us having the concurrence of most friends herein and Sarah S. Kington in appointing temporary her of the decision of this meeting.
